

All My Life's a Circle

Written by: Harry Chapin

C G
All my life's a circle, sunrise and sundown
The moon rolls through the night time,
till the daybreak comes around.

F
All my life's a circle, but I can't tell you why
C C C
Seasons spinning round again, the years keep rolling by.

C G
It seems like I've been here before, I can't remember when
G
But I've got this funny feeling, that I'll be back here once again.
There's no straight lines make up my life,
F
and all my roads have bends.

C G C
There's no clear cut beginning, and so far no dead ends.

C G
I've found you a thousand times, I guess you've done the same,
C
But then we lose each other, it's just like a children's game.

F
But as I find you here again, the thought rolls through my mind,
C G C
Our love is like a circle; let's go 'round one more time.
