

Someday Soon

Written by Ian Tyson

D Bm G D
There's a young man that I know whose age is twenty-one
Bm G A7
Comes from down in southern Colora-do
D Bm G D
Just out of the service he's lookin for his fun
Em7 A7 D
Someday soon going with him someday soon

Bm G D
My parents cannot stand him cause he rides the rodeo
Bm G A7
My father says that he will leave me crying
D Bm G D
I would follow him right down the roughest road I know
Em7 A7 D
Someday soon going with him someday soon

(CHORUS)

A G D
But when he comes to call my pa ain't got a good word to say
Bm E7 A7
Guess it's cause he's just as wild in his younger days

D Bm G D
So blow you old blue norther blow my love to me
Bm G A7
He's drivin' in tonight from California
D Bm G D
He loves his damned old rodeo as much as he loves me
Em7 A7 D
Someday soon going with him someday soon

REPEAT CHORUS AND FOLLOWING VERSE

Em7 A7 D
Someday soon going with him someday soon